32, and Duke of Wirtenberg, ! 22, and the States, 25, her agreement with Hawkins, ^ i, and M Lomenie, 51, shows Essex Doleman's Conference, 57-8, 59, and Essex's device at the Tilt, 60-1, and Henry IV , 64-5 , dines with Lord Keeper, 65, and Lady Huntingdon, 66, and Henry IV, 73 , and * Count * Arundel, 76, 90, and Tyrone's demands, 80, angry with Burleigh, 81, and Bishop of St David's, 86—7, 88 , Declaration of, 91 , and Spanish prisoners, 108, her picture, 118, hears news of Cadiz, 118, displeased at Cadiz expenses, 128, 129, and Signer Gradenigo, 129-130, at * touching', 130 , shears to treaty with Henry IV , 3²—3 9* ner expenses on behalf of Henry IV , 133 , angry with Burleigh, 135 , and M de Reaulx, 135 , advice to Essex concerning, 139—140 , abused in Scotland, 151-2 , and dearth, 158 , needs loan, 168, visits Essex, 170, makes Essex Master of Ordnance, 172, punishes two of her ladies, 181, at Feast of St George, 184, angry with Council, 187, and Lady Howard, 188-9, restores Ralegh to favour, 190, and MacHugh's head, 191, and Polish ambassador, 200, threatens James VI, 203 , and Danish ambassador, 206-7 , and slanders on Lord Mayor, 207, and Noms's death, 208 , makes Lord Howard Earl of Nottingham, 215, opens Parliament, 215-16, Speaker presented to, 220,, letter to Emperor of Ethiopia, 230, displeased with Essex, 231, and Essex's absence, 232* gives audience to de Maisse, 238, 242, 245, on the love of her people, 245, resolves to send Cecil to France, 248 , orders Sallyard to be closed, 249 , angry with Southampton, 250, 252 , dissolves Parliament, 253-4; and Burleigh, 259, and Lady Leicester, 261-2, receives ambassadors from the States, 264-5, her letter to Henry IV, 277 , and King of Scots, 279, Essex on, 282, represented in dumb show, 283 , boxes Essex's ear, 287, and Essex, 290 her favour to Lord Grey, 291-2; grief at Burleigh's death, 298, her message to Essex, 299-300, and Essex, 304, anger at Southampton's e, 3°5> rebukes Council of 307, Squire's attempt to murder, 320-2, royally received, 323, decides on Essex for Ireland, 323, seeks a loan from the City, 324, 325, her declaration concerning James VI, 325, slanders on, 327

m, i, 2,14,20,23,28,35,37,38,45, Si, & CO, 58 O)> i W, 66, 68, 69, 75 00, 78, 81, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 93 (2), 104, 113, 122,123, 130, 131, 141, H3, 144, '45, H7, 5, 158, 162 (2), 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 169, 170, 17*, 173, 175, *7^, 179, 181, *86, I95, 196, 200, 212, 224, 235, 236, 237 (2), 26l (2), 265, 270, 278 (2), 279, 290, 295, 299, 303, 313, 318, 323, angry with Gerrard, 4, and Essex's commission, 12, 13 , offended with Essex and Southampton, 21, 22> 23 9 praises Noms, 22, angry at Essex's ill-success, 27, 29, god-mother to Coke's daughter, 31, rumoured dead, 34, and Mrs RatchfTe, 34, rumours concern-
In£> 35 > an<^ Scots ambassador, 37, and Cuffe, 38, Bacon on Essex, to, 39, and truce with Tyrone, 40, and Essex's return, 41, 42-3, angry with Essex, 44, reports concerning, 46, orders Mounrjoy to Ireland, 46, con-tinued anger with Essex, 46—7, and Essex's contempts, 46-7, and Essex's illness, 49, and Mrs Rat-clifFe's death, 50, royally received, 50, and Hannglon, 51, still angry with Essex, 54, sends physicians to Essex, 59, and Christmas festivi-ties, 60, and New Year's gifts, 63, health of, 63, and Essex, 65, and Egerton's bereavement, 67, and Cheapside Cross, 67, and Essex, 69, and Verreyken, 71, a Walloon on, 71, comes abroad, 71, audience to Verreyken, 73, and Essex's friends, 74, and Essex's Garter robes, So, and Essex's letter, 84, deliberations about Essex, 86, at Herbert-Russell wedding, 91-2, and Mrs Fitton, 92, and Essex's knights, 94-5, and treaty at Boulogne, xoo, and Southampton, 101 (2), and deserters, 102-3, receives Barbary ambassadors, no, releases Essex, 112, Essex's letters to, 1x3, 116, on Essex's letters, 116, and Russian ambassador, 118,120, keeps farm of sweet wanes, 122, royally received, 123-4,125, Essex's speeches of, 126-7, 3 > her letter to Mount-joy, 127-8, much painted, 132,